Coaches' Association

Who is it for?

All qualified coaches can become a member of the Coaches' Association regardless of your coaching experience and qualification level. Members range from coaches with the Level 1 Coaching Certificate and very little experience to UEFA 'A' Licence coaches. There is something for everyone!

What are the benefits?

Join today and receive the following benefits:

- Practical coaching demonstrations by guest coaches throughout the year
- Opportunities to access specialised courses / offers
- Discounts for Charter Standard Clubs on membership

What is the cost?

Individual Coach Membership: At present the annual membership is £15 per season for individuals (July - June). This figure will be reviewed annually

Charter Standard Club Membership: Full club membership is also available which allows all coaches from your club to attend under one membership (July - June). Charter Standard & Adult Club membership is £30 per season, whilst Development & Community Club membership is £50.

What do I need to become a member?

To become a member complete the application form and return, with a cheque and two passport photos (individual membership only). You will then receive confirmation and details of how to book onto the sessions and other member benefits.
